

Daily Q.KWSE

Today is 21 Sep 2008, and the KWSE closed at 13,148.
Sometime not too distant from now, we will likely see 14,200. Consider yourself lucky if we get there directly. The market, in its own devious ways, could first choose to take a look at 11,950 and then rally to 14,200 levels. But we need to be EXTRA careful once we reach 14,200 because every day the market spends above that level is really a bonus. Lookout for a heart breaking sell off towards 9,100 from somewhere above 14,200. Don't despair if the market continues higher above 14,200 (for example to 15,600 !) The sell-off will be so fast that you won't really regret at having gotten out of the market too soon! Ramki.

Good bye
14,200
